PLATINUM PROPOSAL

FIRST,
THANK YOU
FOR CONSIDERING US!

At LexJet, our mission is simple: your success.

Twenty-five years ago, we began as a humble seller of select wide-format media. Today, we still sell media, but now we offer complete solutions for your business. That “complete solution” includes providing the very best in customer service and ongoing technical support. We know that your success is our success. With your help we will continue to lead the way in showing that it’s possible to deliver a great experience to customers, employees, vendors, stakeholders, and the community without sacrificing quality.

We are driven by creating experiences that deliver results for your business and for your customers.

95% CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

Customer satisfaction is our top priority and we tirelessly work to meet and exceed expectations. Many companies don't measure customer satisfaction. We both measure it and proudly display it because we put customers first and that's the way it'll always be at LexJet.

WE'RE OBSESSED WITH OUR CUSTOMERS

We're radically biased. We want you to have an amazing customer experience each and every time. We start by understanding your pain points, business needs, and priorities. This allows us to deliver a customized solution that is specifically tailored to you.

When factoring the total cost of ownership for a major investment, it's critically important to know who you can turn to if something goes wrong. Everything starts with our mission: your success. It is bold, but it's absolutely real. We're here when you need us and we'll do everything in our power to make it right.

Through our focus on culture, innovation, and ongoing education we have cultivated the most experienced and knowledgeable customer service, sales, and technical support teams in the industry. When you choose LexJet, you're getting experience on tap that can help you achieve your business goals.

MAKING YOU STAND OUT

It's what we're here for!

When you choose LexJet, you'll experience an approach of service to help you get the tools you need to get the job done – and then take your business to the next level. We provide knowledgeable support, supply you with proven and cutting-edge products, and dedicate ourselves to helping you succeed.

WHAT SETS LEXJET APART?

Our Commitment to You.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

We love getting to know you. We want to hear about what's working, as well as your day-to-day challenges. We're here to jump on a live call with you to solve anything from a color correction issue to an overnight delivery emergency. We've got the best- educated team in the business paired with online resources, like our technical videos, eNewsletters, white papers, the LexJet Blog, and more.

FULL SERVICE

LexJet is a true one-stop shop, with the widest selection of printers, media, ink, software, laminates, adhesives, laminators, and much more. We partner with the best in the business, including Canon, Epson, Kodak, and HP. We help you stay stocked with the tried and trusted products you know and love, as well as the industry's latest supplies. With our distribution centers across the country you'll get your order within a day or two.

ONGOING DEDICATION

What's this all worth if you're not racking up some wins every day? Whether you want to provide a one-of-a-kind product, or more printing services than your competition, or even ways to save the environment, we're standing by to help you score. How? By offering a 10-second response time when you call us between 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. EST Monday to Friday. That's how dedicated we are to your success.
